Christ the King Sunday

As we end this church year, this last Sunday we draw our hearts to Christ, our King. Even today people like to define and describe God as if they were in charge of God. They may tell you what to expect of God but God has shown Himself to be different than what people expected. Who would look to the shameful punishment of execution on a cross to find their King? Yet there He is, more triumphant than the eye reveals. There He is, giving words no one else could... "today you will be with me in paradise".

Christ is the King of kings and LORD of lords, however it unlikely it may look. Join us today as we praise our King for the mighty victory He won for us all! Christ is our eternal King, to Him be all the praise and glory and honor, now and forever more! Amen!

Invocation Call to Worship

Pastor: In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

Group: Amen

Confession of Sins

We have come here to worship and praise our God. It only seems fitting that we should start in the beginning.

In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth

Day after day, God added to his creation...

...and it was good

Then the perfect God made the crown of creation. He made Adam, and because it was not good for Adam to be alone, he made Eve.

So God created mankind in his own image

In the image of God he made them,
Male and female he created them...

...and it was very good. Adam and Eve were in unity with God.

And God walked with them in the Garden.

Hymn 574 stanza 1

The Tree of Life

The tree of life with ev'ry good In Eden's holy orchard stood
And of its fruit so pure and sweet God let the man and woman eat
Yet in this garden also grew Another tree of which they knew
Its lovely limbs with fruit adorned Against whose eating God had warned

We know what happened next. In that scene of perfection, God told Adam and Eve that they have dominion over all they saw. They could enjoy the fruit of any tree, except one. He asked them to honor Him by not eating the fruit of that one tree.

Hymn 574 stanza 2

The Tree of Life

The stillness of that sacred grove Was broken as the serpent strove
With tempting voice Eve to beguile And Adam to by sin defile
Oh, day of sadness when the breath Of fear and darkness, doubt and death
Its awful poison first displayed Within the world so newly made

Adam and Eve learned shame. From that moment when Adam and Eve chose their way over God's, all creation has been in mourning. We come here to this church not to claim we are better or special, but to acknowledge the reality of everything.

God is holy, we are not.

God does not sin and does not want us to sin, but we sin.

We choose our ways over His ways.

Friends, sinners, let us confess our unworthiness to the Lord and ask for his forgiveness.

Lord of life, I confess that I am by nature dead in sin.
For faithless worrying and selfish pride,
For sins of habit and sins of choice,
For the evil I have done and the good I have failed to do,
You should cast me away from your presence forever.
O Lord, I am sorry for my sins. Forgive me, for Jesus' sake.

Hymn 574 stanza 3

The Tree of Life

What mercy God showed to our race, A plan of rescue by his grace:
In sending One from woman's seed, The One to fill our greatest need--
For on a tree uplifted high His only Son for sin would die,
Would drink the cup of scorn and dread To crush the ancient serpent's head!

The Creator bent down and dwelt amongst his fallen creation. Who is God?
Look at what he has done! Out of His pure and boundless love, while we were still rebellious sinners, God came to rescue us.

Be at peace, your sins are forgiven. Be confident in your Savior. Be filled with joy knowing that by God's undeserved grace toward us, we will one day walk with God in perfect unity. We will be with Him in the gardens of Heaven and see the tree of life.

Hymn 574 stanza 4

The Tree of Life

Now from that tree of Jesus' shame Flows life eternal in his name;
For all who trust and will believe, Salvation's living fruit receive.
And of this fruit so pure and sweet The Lord invites the world to eat,
To find within this cross of wood The tree of life with ev'ry good.

Kyrie Lord Have Mercy

In peace let us pray to the Lord.
Lord have mercy.

For the peace from above and for our salvation, let us pray to the Lord.
Lord have mercy.

For the peace of the whole world, for the well-being of the Church of God, and for the unity of all, let us pray to the Lord.
Lord have mercy.

For this holy house and for all who offer here their worship and praise, let us pray to the Lord.
Lord have mercy.

Help, save, comfort, and defend us, gracious Lord.
Amen

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Let us pray.

Lord Jesus Christ, by your victory you have broken the power of the evil one. Fill our hearts with joy and peace as we look with hope to that day when every creature in heaven and earth will acclaim you King of kings and Lord of lords to your unending praise and glory; for you live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

First Reading Jeremiah 23:1-6

¹“Woe to the shepherds who are destroying and scattering the sheep of my pasture!” declares the LORD. ²Therefore this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says to the shepherds who tend my people: “Because you have scattered my flock and driven them away and have not bestowed care on them, I will bestow punishment on you for the evil you have done,” declares the LORD. ³“I myself will gather the remnant of my flock out of all the countries where I have driven them and will bring them back to their pasture, where they will be fruitful and increase in number. ⁴I will place shepherds over them who will tend them, and they will no longer be afraid or terrified, nor will any be missing,” declares the LORD.

⁵“The days are coming,” declares the LORD,
“when I will raise up for David a righteous Branch,
a King who will reign wisely
and do what is just and right in the land.

⁶In his days Judah will be saved
and Israel will live in safety.

This is the name by which he will be called:
The LORD Our Righteous Savior.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Second Reading Colossians 1:13-20

¹³For he has rescued us from the dominion of darkness and brought us into the kingdom of the Son he loves, ¹⁴in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins. ¹⁵The Son is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn over all creation. ¹⁶For in him all things were created: things in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or powers or rulers or authorities; all things have been created through him and for him. ¹⁷He is before all things, and in him all things hold together. ¹⁸And he is the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning and the firstborn from among the dead, so that in everything he might have the supremacy. ¹⁹For God was pleased to have all his fullness dwell in him, ²⁰and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether things on earth or things in heaven, by making peace through his blood, shed on the cross.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation Luke 23:42,43

Alleluia.

“Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom.”
Jesus answered him, “Today you will be with me in paradise.”

Alleluia.

Gospel Reading Luke 23:35-43

³⁵The people stood watching, and the rulers even sneered at him. They said, “He saved others; let him save himself if he is God’s Messiah, the Chosen One.”

³⁶The soldiers also came up and mocked him. They offered him wine vinegar ³⁷and said, “If you are the king of the Jews, save yourself.”

³⁸There was a written notice above him, which read: this is the king of the jews.

³⁹One of the criminals who hung there hurled insults at him: “Aren’t you the Messiah? Save yourself and us!”

⁴⁰But the other criminal rebuked him. “Don’t you fear God,” he said, “since you are under the same sentence? ⁴¹We are punished justly, for we are getting what our deeds deserve. But this man has done nothing wrong.”

⁴²Then he said, “Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom.”

⁴³Jesus answered him, “Truly I tell you, today you will be with me in paradise.”

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise be to you, O Christ!

Confession of Faith Nicene Creed

The Nicene Creed was written around A.D. 325 in defense of the true Christian faith. .

The Nicene Creed can be found on page 162 of the hymnal.

Prayer of the Church

To him who sits on the throne and to the Lamb be praise and honor and glory and power for ever and ever!

Let us rejoice and be glad and give him glory.

You are worthy, O Christ our King, to receive honor and glory and praise, for you created all things and by your will they were created and have their being.

Alleluia! For our Lord God Almighty reigns!

You are worthy, O Christ our King, to receive honor and glory and praise because you were slain, and with your blood you purchased us for God. From every tribe and language and people and nation, you have called us into your kingdom and have made us priests to serve you, our God and Father.

Help us live as royal priests.

We give thanks to you, O Christ our Shepherd-King, because you have searched for us and found us. Lead us to the green pastures and quiet waters of your saving love, so that we may enjoy peace and comfort for our souls.

Heal our hearts when they are broken with sin and guilt.

Strengthen us when we are weak.

We give thanks to you, Lord God Almighty, because you have taken your great power and have begun to reign. Come with your mighty power to break and defeat every evil plan and purpose of the devil, of the ungodly influences and ideas of the world, and of our own sinful nature. Use your power to calm the unrest among nations and peoples so that your kingdom may spread and grow.

Strengthen our confidence in knowing that your kingdom will never be destroyed.

O Christ our King, you have supremacy over all. You will judge the world in righteousness and the peoples with equity. You have destroyed death and brought life and immortality to light through the gospel. Reign in our hearts that we may serve you more faithfully and speak more boldly to others of your saving love.

Praise be to the Lord God, who alone does marvelous deeds.

May the whole earth be filled with his glory.

Hear us, Lord, as we bring you our private petitions.

—Silent prayer—

Look, he is coming with the clouds, and every eye will see him, even those who pierced him. The kingdom of the world has become the kingdom of our Lord and of his Christ, and he will reign for ever and ever, King of kings and Lord of lords!

The Lord God Almighty reigns!

Let us rejoice and be glad and give him glory! Amen.

Offering

Our offering is our reaction to God's grace, do not feel obligated to give.

The Sacrament spoken

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give him thanks and praise.

It is truly good and right that we should at all times and in all places give you thanks, O Lord, holy Father, almighty and everlasting God, through Jesus Christ our Lord, who preserves his Church to the end of time, when he will come again as king to judge all people and take his own to glory. Therefore, with all the saints on earth and hosts of heaven, we praise your holy name and join their glorious song:

Holy, Holy, Holy

na in the high - est. Ho-san - na in the high - est.

Prayer of Thanksgiving

We give thanks to you, O God, through your dear Son, Jesus Christ, whom you sent to be our Savior, our Redeemer, and the messenger of your grace. Through him you made all things; in him you are well pleased. He is the incarnate Word, conceived by the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary. To fulfill your promises, he stretched out his hands on the cross and released from eternal death all who believe in you.

As we remember Jesus' death and resurrection, we thank you that you have gathered us together to receive your Son's body and blood. Send us your Spirit, unite us as one, and strengthen our faith so that we may praise you in your Son, Jesus Christ. Through him, we glorify and honor you, O God our Father, with the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.
Amen.

The Lord's Prayer the prayer our Savior taught us

Words of Institution

Our Lord Jesus Christ, on the night he was betrayed, took bread; and when he had given thanks, he broke it and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Take and eat; this is my + body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

Then he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, "Drink from it, all of you; this is my + blood of the new covenant, which is poured out for you for the forgiveness of sins. Do this, whenever you drink it, in remembrance of me."

The peace of the Lord be with you always.
Amen.

Distribution of the Sacrament

Our Practice of Close Communion

Based on the words of Scripture, we believe that partaking in the Sacrament of Holy Communion is one of the highest forms of fellowship we have this side of heaven—both with our Risen Savior and with our fellow believers. By partaking in the sacrament, we confess that we believe what this congregation teaches and confesses. Because we don't want to put anyone in the uncomfortable position of having to state their full agreement with us before we've had an opportunity to explain it to them, we respectfully ask that only those who are communicant members of this congregation or another WELS or ELS congregation come forward to receive the Sacrament. If you would like further explanation of our practice, Pastor Rothfuss would be more than willing to explain after the worship service.
